Part I

Examiner: Hello. My name's Jane. What's your name?

Child: Hello. My name is Fred.

Examiner: Look at this. It's a beautiful night. The kids are camping.

Examiner: Here's the moon.

Where's the lake?

Child: Here.

Examiner: Where are the tents?

Child: There.

Examiner: That's right, very good.

Examiner: Now look at these. (Pointing to Object cards)

Which is the frog?

I'm putting the frog on a lily pad in the lake.

Now you put the frog on the rocks behind the children.

Examiner: Is this a flashlight? (pointing to the flashlight)

Child: Yes.

Examiner: Put the flashlight between the girls with long hair.

Examiner: Is this a food bag? (pointing to the food bag)

Put it near the yellow tent.

Examiner: Are these the bottles of water?
Put them in front of the boy with black hair.

Part II

Examiner: Now, what's this?

Child: It is a tent.

Examiner: What colour is it?

Child: Yellow.

Examiner: How many tents are there? Are there two? Three?

Child: Two.

Examiner: What's the children doing?

Child: They are making a campfire.

Examiner: Tell me about this girl. (pointing to the girl)

Child: The girl has red hair that is braided. She is wearing a T-shirt and long jeans, along with brown shoes.

Examiner: Great, now let's go on.
